

Organization is looking for a Human Dimension Expert

Nur-Sultan

07.06.2021

The Secretariat of the Conference on Interaction and Confidence Building Measures in Asia (CICA) opens a vacant position for the Human Dimension Expert.

Qualification requirements:

Academic degree – social sciences and at least five years of experience in the field of human rights, youth activities and intercivilizational relations at a think tank or international organization. Fluency in English is required.

Tasks and responsibilities:

- Conduct monitoring and analysis on the Human Dimension related developments, trends and issues within/outside the CICA area;
- Analyze and evaluate CICA Human Dimension events, proposed by the Member States for their consistency with the interests of all Member States, and provide conclusions and recommendations to the Executive Director;
- Conduct analysis and provide recommendations with regard to opportunities and prospects of cooperation within the Human Dimension;
- Develop reports and proposals for the promotion of human rights, youth activities, intercultural, interreligious, interethnic relations in the CICA area;
- Develop informational materials, including notes, information for briefings and statements;
- Participate in various events, conferences, seminars, round tables, etc.;
- Collect and analyze information on the activities of other international organizations and regional forums in the Human Dimension and make proposals to the Executive Director on best practices in this area;
- Prepare informational and analytical materials, including notes, information for briefings and statements by the Executive Director;
- Organize seminars and trainings on the promotion of human rights, youth activities, intercultural, interreligious, interethnic relations in the CICA area;
- Carry out activities related to the CICA Youth Council;

- Carry out activities planned within the Human Dimension.

Our conditions:

Competitive salary, probationary period is established during a personal interview with the candidate.

Those wishing to apply for the position must send their CV with a photo, starting from the date of publication and no later than June 18, 2021.

Please send your CV to the email address - saule@s-cica.kz

For more information, please write to the above email address.